If any camp has a paper and it is not listed above, write us a note or send us a copy of the paper in order that we might keep our list up-to-date.

If you have failed to get out your paper recently you should make every effort to begin publishing a paper again. Camp papers are a part of the educational program and they should not be neglected.

2. RECENT ARTICLES CONCERNING THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM IN THE CCC.

Below we are listing several recent magazine articles concerning the educational program in the CCC. If available every educational adviser should read them.

Education for Patriotism. (Answer to article by Mr. C. A. Edson) Henry J. Leach. Forum 93: 257-8, May, 1935.

Books Go to Camps Again. Article by Mr. M. J. Curran explaining how the Library Association of Massachusetts has aided the CCC Camps of that State. Library Journal, 60: 315-18, April 15, 1935.

Work Relief Spending Plans. News-Week, 5: 7, April 20, 1935.

No Militarism in CCC. Article by C. W. Kirkpatrick, CEA, Camp Smokie, Ill. Christian Century, April 24, 1935.

Looking Ahead With the CCC. Article by Austin F. Howes. American Forests, May, 1935.

3. REFERENCE LIST OF FREE AND INEXPENSIVE MATERIALS:

This reference list has been distributed to all the camps in the Corps Area by the Corps Area Educational Adviser.

It contains much useful information; and the camp educational adviser should make full use of the sources given in the list. It should be remembered that Government Bulletins listed should be requested through the DEA's.
